RECENT CASES.

CORPORATIONS.

Corporations—Dissolution—Judgment of Foreign Court.—Scammon v. Metropolitan Trust Co., 42 N. E. Rep., 515 (N. Y.). A judgment was obtained in Illinois against a New York corporation after its dissolution, in accordance with the Illinois statutes which continue a dissolved corporation for the purpose of settling its affairs. Held, that this judgment was void, and that neither the principle of comity nor the provision of the United States Constitution requiring full faith and credit to be given to the judgments of sister States, required the New York courts to enforce it.

Corporations—Preferring Creditors—Rights of Officers—Creditors' Bill.—Mallery v. Kirkpatrick, 33 Atl. Rep., 205 (N. J.). An insolvent corporation cannot under the laws of New Jersey prefer, as a creditor, one of its officers who upon resignation has secured a judgment. A later creditor, framing a bill for the benefit of all the creditors and making the corporation a party, is entitled to a decree that the surplus brought by the property shall be held by such officer in trust for the benefit of all the creditors.

Corporations—Proceedings to Forfeit Charter—Parties—Powers of Receivers.—City Water Co. v. State, 32 S. W. Rep., 1033 (Tex.) The State of Texas brought a suit in the nature of a quo warranto, to forfeit the charter of a certain city water company chartered under the laws of the State. The company set up by way of a plea in abatement, that a receiver had been appointed over the corporation by authority of the United States Circuit Court, and contended that no action could be maintained in the State court against the corporation unless the receiver was joined. Held, that the receiver appointed by the United States Circuit Court for the corporation was neither a necessary nor a proper party to an action by the State to forfeit its charter.

Corporations—Subscription.—B. S. Green Co. v. Blodgett, 42 N. E. Rep., 176 (Ill.). A subscription made by a mercantile corporation in the event of securing the location of a post-office
